An Act to correct omissions in the reappointment of Maarametua Tetava as Commissioner of Police during the period 1 November 2016 to 17 March 2020.

The Parliament of the Cook Islands enacts as follows—

- 1 Title
This Act is the Police (Validation of Reappointment) Act 2020.
- 2 Principal Act
In this Act, the Police Act 2012 is called the principal Act.
- 3 Commencement
This Act comes into force on assent by the Queen's Representative.
- 4 Act binds the Crown
This Act binds the Crown.
- 5 Validation of reappointment of Commissioner of Police
 - (1) This section applies to Maarametua Tetava who, in the period beginning on 1 November 2016 and ending at the close of 17 March 2020, occupied the position of Commissioner of Police.
 - (2) Maarametua Tetava is declared to have been reappointed under section 9 of the principal Act—
 - (a) on 1 November 2016 until the close of 31 October 2018; and
 - (b) on 1 November 2018 until the close of 17 March 2020.
 - (3) The reappointments made under subsection (2) override any other reappointments or purported reappointments made during the period.

- (4) Anything done by Maarametua Tetava during the period 1 November 2016 to the close of 17 March 2020 is declared to be, and to have always been, as valid as it would have been if he had been validly reappointed to the position of Commissioner of Police.

This Act is administered by the Cook Islands Police.
Printed under the authority of the Cook Islands Parliament—2020.
