

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NAURU

CIVIL ACTION NO. 9/2000

BETWEEN : CLAY SOLOMON PLAINTIFF
AND : NAURU AIR CORPORATION DEFENDANT

ORDER

I ORDER that

1. finding the Plaintiff was wrongly suspended and dismissed, he is entitled to relief in damages
 - (a) for the period of his suspension without pay from and including 21 January 1998 to and including 1 April 1998,
 - (b) in relation to dismissal from and including 2 April 1998 to the next authorized pay-day following 1 April 1998.
2. the assessment of damages for the above periods be on the scale of wages applicable to the Plaintiff at the time.
3. if there is any dispute between the parties as to the assessed calculation of damages in accordance with this order, both parties may apply to me in Chambers.
4. costs are granted to the Plaintiff to the extent of $\frac{3}{4}$ of the party and party costs from the date of, but not including, the Chamber Summons on 10 September 2001. If the sum of costs is not agreed between the parties, then it can be taxed by the Registrar in accordance with this order.
5. there is liberty to apply.
