In the Supreme Court

Civil Suit No. 19/2001

Between

Wolverstone Tatum

Plaintiff

And

James Scotty

Defendant

Application ex parte for interim injunction

Order

Judge:	The Chief Justice
Date Made:	5 July 2001
Originating Process:	Ex parte application
How Obtained:	On written application made by the plaintiff supported by affidavit of the plaintiff dated 4 July 2001

Upon the plaintiff undertaking to:

1. Abide by any order that this Court may make as to damages sustained by the defendant by reason of this order.
2. Notify the defendant, James Scotty, immediately of the terms of this order and to serve upon the defendant as soon as practicable a copy of the affidavit of the plaintiff and a copy of the exhibits to that affidavit together with a copy of this order.
3. Notify the defendant of his right, if so advised, to apply to discharge or vary this order.

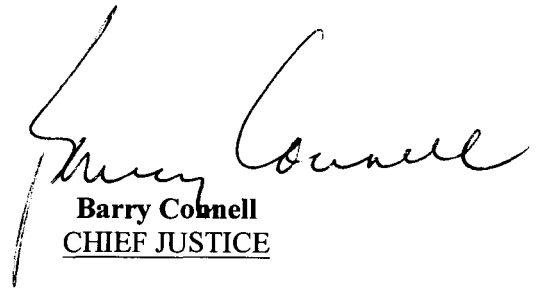

The Court orders that:

1. An injunction is granted restraining the defendant, whether personally or by his servants or agents or otherwise, from:

- (a) further building on portion 114 known as 'MUEOEN' in the Uaboe district ('the said land'),
- (b) undertaking any business or commercial use on the said land, until after the hearing of a summons to continue this injunction returnable on Thursday 19 July 2001 or other date notified by the Court.

- 2. The parties are at liberty to apply to discharge or vary this order on seven days notice.
- 3. The costs of this application are reserved.

Barry Connell
CHIEF JUSTICE
