ORDER
<hr/>

Upon hearing the Plaintiff and the First Respondent I make the following Orders –

1. The first respondent to withdraw on the order of the Supreme Court the GN No. 30/2003 and GN No. 197/2003 with notice published that the estate of the late Delia Deduna of Buada is to be newly determined and that a meeting of the family of the deceased will be called by the Nauru Lands Committee promptly.
2. The Nauru Lands Committee, first respondent, is to make a determination on the said estate following the family meeting under the procedures of Administration Order No. 3 of 1938.
3. The Interlocutory order made by the Acting Registrar on 30 September 2004 will remain in force but will be varied in paragraph 1 by substituting the words 'by the Nauru Lands Committee after acting in accordance with the order of the Supreme Court dated 2 December 2004' for the words 'by the Court' at the end of the paragraph.
4. Paragraph 2 of the interlocutory order will be varied in the same manner as paragraph 3 of this Order.

Dated 2nd day of December 2004
