

REPUBLIC OF NAURU
SUPREME COURT

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NAURU

Civil Case No. 22/2018

BETWEEN:

Gaimen Denuga

AND

Sherlock L Denuga & Ors

Before: FILIMONE JITOKO, Chief Justice

APPEARANCES

For the Plaintiff : Mr. S Valenitabua

For the Defendants: Mr. V Clodumar

ORDERS

The Court having heard Sevuloni Valenitabua Counsel for the Plaintiff/Applicant and Vinci Clodumar, Counsel for the defendants/ respondents in the matter of the plaintiff's application for an order restraining the defendants from interfering with the plaintiff's peace and quiet enjoyment to her and family's residence on land portion 146 known as Anupudu, Denigomodu district, and the Court appreciating the fragile and temporary nature of the peace that now exists between the parties, and the need to maintain the present status quo, make orders as follows:

1. That for the time being both the plaintiff and the defendants are to desist from constructing, adding or extending to their homes and /or residences on land portion 146 known as Anupudu, Denigomodu district.
2. That the defendants are to cease interfering with or disturbing in any way whatsoever the plaintiff's peace and right to quiet enjoyment of her residence on land portion 146, known as Anapudu, Denigomodu district.
3. Costs to be in the cause; and
4. Matter is adjourned to 22 March, 2019 at 10.00am for further directions

Dated this 29th day of January, 2019.

F Itoko
Chief Justice

