

CORRECTIONAL SERVICES ACT 2007
(No. 8 of 2007)

CORRECTIONAL SERVICES REGULATIONS 2008 SCHEDULE

FORM I

EARLY RELEASE ON LICENCE ORDER
(REGULATION 201)

I, Hon. Anthony Kamutulaka Veke, under regulation 201 of the Correctional Services Regulations 2008 order the release of the following person:

Name: Peter Jack Zama Offence: Rape

Date of conviction: 1 February 2019

Term of imprisonment: 7 years

Correctional Centre: Rove Central Correctional Centre

Supervisor: Commandant (Chief Superintendent Christopher Bwekulyi)

Report at: Rove Centre

The person named in this early release on licence order (the holder) is permitted to be released from the correctional centre within thirty days of the date of this order for the remaining part of their term of imprisonment.

The release order is subject to the further conditions specified. The release order is liable to be revoked for any breach of these conditions. The Minister may add conditions, vary the conditions or revoke the release order at the time.

Conditions of release:

1. The holder of this release order must produce it at the request of a Provincial Secretary, police officer, magistrate or judge.
2. The holder must not violate any law, or be charged with the commission of any offence under Solomon Islands law.
3. Prior to release from the correctional centre the holder must advise the Commandant where he or she intends to reside. After release the holder must go to the nominated residence as soon as practicable. Within 48 hours of arrival at the nominated residence, the holder must report personally to the Supervisor at the place specified.
4. The holder must continue to report to the Supervisor personally once each month. After 3 months of satisfactory conduct and reporting, the Supervisor may permit reporting by any other approved means including letter, telephone, radio or electronic communication.
5. If the holder changes his or her residence, he or she must notify the Supervisor of the intention to move at least 48 hours beforehand. If the change of residence requires a change to the Supervisor, the change of Supervisor must be approved by the Minister. The holder and the new Supervisor (who brings the original release order) must attend the nearest correctional centre to have the conditions and obligations of the order explained to them. They must acknowledge in writing that they understand the conditions and will comply with the conditions. Notification of the variation must be forwarded to the Commandant of the named correctional centre within 7 days.
6. Despite condition 5, if the new Supervisor is a police officer, a correctional services officer or a public servant supervising the prisoner as part of his or her official duties, Ministerial approval and written acknowledgement is not required.
7. Within 48 hours of arrival at the new residence, the holder must report in person to the new supervisor. If the holder had been satisfactorily reporting to the former Supervisor other than in person, the new supervisor may permit reporting by the other approved means.
8. The holder must comply with other conditions the Minister subsequently adds or vary.
