John Court of the New Hebrides
Criminal session of December 13th, 1912

The Public Prosecutor versus Eugène Caron, Craig's Cove, Ambrym, accused of a breach of Article 59 of the Convention of October 20th, 1912.

This thirteenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, at 3 o'clock P.M., the Joint Court, consisting of the President, Comte Bueno Esperanza; the French Judge, Jean Colonna; the British Judge,
T. E. Roseby; in the presence of the Public Prosecutor, Comte Andino;
M^r Blangé, the Registrar, recording;
sitting as a court of summary jurisdiction, of first and last instance,
in public session, delivered the following judgment:

The Joint Court:

having heard read the documents of the case; the accused in his plea;
the Public Prosecutor in his charge;
having heard the accused in his defence, both by him made and by his Counsel M^r Corsin; Whereas, from the facts adduced and from the evidence of the sworn witnesses, there does not appear sufficient proof that Caron did sell to the New Hebridean Native Varborg, in April 1912, at Ambrym, a glass of absinthe;

For these reasons:

discharges Caron, without costs; orders the costs to be paid by the Condominium.

() Done, judged and delivered, the day, month and year as ab head. By the Joint Court, the President, the French and British Judges who signed with the Registrar.

The President:

The British Judge: The Registrar: The French Judge:
