

19th November, 1935.

JOINT COURT OF THE NEW HEBRIDES

JUDGMENT

-0-

This nineteenth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty five:

A judgment having been delivered by the Native Court for the District of the Southern Islands, on the 20th September 1935, whereby the native KOIAMIL, of Maieldas (Island of Tanna), was sentenced to imprisonment for life for wilful murder of the native woman named IOANANI, and for attempt to murder of the native CHARLEY MARG.

In conformity with the provisions of Article 8, paragraph 12 of the Anglo-French Convention of the 6th August 1914.

We, the undersigned President and Judges of the Joint Court hereby confirm the aforementioned sentence of the Native Court for the District of the Southern Islands, dated the 20th September, 1935.

Gaullin

Acting President.

Carad

British Judge.

Mmich

French Judge.

[Signature]

Acting Registrar.