ADMINISTRATION OF SCHOOLS

REGULATION

Explanatory Note

This law provides for the organisation of Government schools and the general development of educational services in the New Hebrides.

Part 2 of the law has provisions about the Education Advisory Council which will advise the Minister on matters concerning education. The members of the Council show a careful balance between the educational groups in the country.

Under Section 6 (8) the Minister or his representative or both may attend Council meetings and participate but may not vote.

In order to allow the Council to operate from day to day without calling all its members together the Council may appoint an Education Advisory Executive Committee which again as far as practicible will be representative of the main groups interested in Education.

The law provides for District Education Boards for each District. These will be responsible for promoting and developing education in Districts and again will be representative of all groups. The Boards appoint District Education Executive Committees to carry out their day to day work and look after the schools under their supervision. Provision is also made for School Councils or School Committees to be established to run grant aided schools. Section 31 provides for Boards and Councils to keep proper accounts and for them to be audited annually.

Under Section 32 Boards and Councils must make annual reports to the Minister. It should be noted that no members of Boards or Councils are to be paid. See Section 33.

April 1980

D. Kalpokas Minister of Education.

DRAFTMANS NOTE .

The Resident Commissioners Joint Regulation bringing this Regulation into force as a law will provide that it shall be cited as the Administration of Schools Regulation and shall come into operation on the Day of Independence.
