

NEW HEBRIDES CONDOMINIUM

JOINT REGULATION

N°. 16 of 1974

TO PROVIDE for the issue of commissions of inquiry.

MADE by the Resident Commissioners under the provisions of Articles 2:2 and 7 of the Anglo-French Protocol of 1914.

Commissions of inquiry

1. (1) The Resident Commissioners may whenever they consider it desirable by joint decision issue a Commission appointing one or more Commissioners authorising them to inquire into any matter in which an inquiry would in the opinion of the Resident Commissioners be for the public welfare :

PROVIDED that no Commission of Inquiry shall be appointed to inquire into facts which are the subject of legal proceedings for so long as such proceedings are pending. If a Commission has already been appointed, its authority shall be immediately terminated upon the commencement of any legal proceedings relating to the facts which led to such appointment.

(2) The Resident Commissioners may in their discretion by such decision appoint one or more assessors selected as to the nationality, status or sex of such assessor or assessors according to the nature of the matters to be inquired into to assist the Commissioner or Commissioners in a consultative capacity.

(3) The decision which shall be published in the Condominium Gazette shall specify -

- (a) the subject of the inquiry;
- (b) if there are more than one Commissioner, the chairman of the Commission ;
- (c) where and when the inquiry shall be made and the report thereof rendered ;
- (d) whether the enquiry shall or shall not be held in public ; and
- (e) such other matters as the Resident Commissioners may consider desirable to specify.

(4) In the absence of a direction to the contrary in such decision the inquiry shall be held in public but the Commissioners shall nevertheless have the power to exclude any particular person or persons for the preservation of order or for the due conduct of the inquiry or for any other reason.

Inability of Commissioner
or assessor
to act

2. If any Commissioner or assessor is or becomes unable or unwilling to act, or dies, the Resident Commissioners may appoint another Commissioner or assessor in his place, and any decision made under section 1 may be altered as the Resident Commissioners deem proper by a subsequent decision, or may be revoked altogether.

Commissions
not affected by change of Resident
Commissioner

3. No decision made under section 1 shall lapse by reason of, or be otherwise affected by, the death, absence, or relinquishment of office of either of the Resident Commissioners who made the same.

Commissioner's
and assessor's oath

4. (1) Every Commissioner and assessor shall before assuming his functions make and subscribe on oath, or affirmation and declaration, that he will fully, faithfully, impartially, and to the best of his ability discharge the trust and perform the duties devolving upon him by virtue of the Commission in the form set out in the First Schedule.

(2) The oath or affirmation and declaration aforesaid may be taken or made before the Resident Commissioners, or before such person as they may appoint to receive the same, and shall be committed to writing and deposited by the Commissioner with the Resident Commissioners.

Secretary of Commission

5. The Resident Commissioners may appoint a Secretary to attend the sittings of the Commission, to record its proceedings and keep its papers, to summon witnesses and minute their testimony, and generally to perform such duties connected with an inquiry as the Commissioners prescribe.

Rules of procedure

6. (1) The Commissioners may make such rules, not inconsistent with the terms of their Commission, for the conduct of proceedings before them, for the times and places of their meetings and the adjournment thereof, as they think proper.

(2) The proceedings of the Commission shall be conducted in the English or the French language as shall be decided by the Chairman or the Chairmen and wherever practicable duly qualified interpreters in every relevant language shall be employed. The record of the proceedings and the report of the Commissioners shall be written in both the English and French languages.

Powers of Commissioners

7. (1) The Commissioners shall have the powers of the Court of First Instance to summon witnesses, to call for the production of books and documents, and to examine on oath witnesses and parties concerned.

(2) A summons to a witness shall be in the form given in the Second Schedule.

Appearance of counsel

8. Any person who satisfies the Commissioners that he has a bona fide interest in the subject matter of inquiry under this Regulation, and any other person by leave of the Commissioners, may attend the inquiry in person or may be represented by an advocate or agent.

Penalty for non-attendance

9. (1) Any person summoned to attend as a witness or to produce documents before the Commissioners who without sufficient cause refuses or neglects to do so, or refuses to answer any question put to him by or with the concurrence of the Commissioners, or having attended leaves the Commission without the permission of the Commissioners, or in any way insults the Commissioners or any of them, or wilfully interrupts the proceedings before them, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 10,000 FNH or the equivalent thereof in Australian dollars at the official rate of exchange :

PROVIDED that no witness shall be bound to incriminate himself, and every witness shall, in respect of any evidence given by him before a Commission, be entitled to all the privileges to which a witness giving evidence before the Court of First Instance is entitled.

(2) Any witness who wilfully gives false evidence in any inquiry concerning the subject matter thereof shall be guilty of perjury and liable to prosecution and punishment accordingly.

10. An assessor appointed to assist the Commissioner or Commissioners shall have the right to address questions to any witness in the proceedings. Upon the completion of the proceedings, the Commissioner or Commissioners shall request the opinion of each such assessor upon every material issue of fact relative to the inquiry and shall record and consider such opinions before reaching his or their findings.

Commissioners'
report

11. (1) The Commissioners shall make a report of their proceedings and of the result of their inquiry to the Resident Commissioners and shall record the reasons leading to their conclusions. In the event of an equal division of opinion on any question requiring to be decided by the Commissioners collectively, the Chairman of the Commission shall have a second or casting vote.

(2) A Commissioner dissenting from the conclusions, or any of them, shall give the reasons for his dissent.

Remuneration of secretary and payment of expenses of Commission
and witnesses

12. (1) Commissioners shall not be entitled to any remuneration, unless sanctioned by the Resident Commissioners, beyond the actual expenses incurred in holding the inquiry but the Resident Commissioners may direct what remuneration, if any, shall be paid to the secretary and to any other person employed in or about a Commission, and may direct payment of any other expenses attendant upon carrying out a Commission, or upon any proceedings for any penalty under this Regulation.

(2) Witnesses who attend at the request of, or upon a summons by, the Commissioners shall, subject to any order made by the Commissioners, be entitled to like expenses as if they had been summoned to attend the Court of First Instance on a criminal trial, and payment thereof shall be made in such manner as the Resident Commissioners may direct.

(3) Sums of money so directed to be paid as aforesaid shall be paid out of the general revenue of the Joint Administration.

Proceedings
for penalties

13. No proceedings shall be commenced for any penalty under this Regulation except by direction of the Commissioners.

Citation and commencement

14. This Regulation may be cited as the Joint Commissions of Inquiry Regulation N°. 16 of 1974 and shall come into operation on the date of its publication in the Condominium Gazette.

MADE at VILA the Sixteenth day of April, 1974.
