HEAD OF STATE ACT 1965

1965

No. 13

AN ACT to make provision for the emoluments, privileges and immunities of the Head of State and other matters pertaining to that Office.

[Assent date: 31 August 1965]

[Commencement date: 1 January 1962]

1. Short title – This Act may be cited as the Head of State Act 1965.

2. Commencement – This Act is deemed to have come into force on 1 January 1962.

2A. Interpretation- In this Act, unless context otherwise requires:

“Minister” means the Minister of the Prime Minister and Cabinet or the Prime Minister;

“Ministry” means the Ministry responsible for the implementation of this Act.

3. Style and title of the Head of State – (1) The style, title and mode of address of the Head of State during a term of office is:

“Afioga i le Ao o le Malo”.

(2) The style and mode of address of the wife of the Head of State during a term of office is:

“Afioga i le Masiofo/Ali’i”.

4. Honours and civil dignities – The Head of State, acting on the advice of the Prime Minister, may create and bestow any titles of honour, order, or civil dignities in recognition of parliamentary or other public service at the Head of State’s pleasure.

5. Immunity from legal process– (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Head of State is accorded immunity from suit and legal process of any kind whether civil or criminal, including freedom from the arrest of the Head of State’s person, during the Head of State’s term of Office.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the charging, prosecution and arrest of the Head of State where the Head of State is suspected of or is charged with a crime established under the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

6. Exemptions from taxation – The Head of State is exempted during the term of office from liability to pay any of the following taxes or charges:

(a) income tax in respect of income derived from the office;

(b) customs duty on all goods imported for household consumption, and on not more than one motor car imported during each 5 years of the term or terms of office, in every case whether for official or private use:

PROVIDED THAT on the goods or motor car purchased by the Head of State in Samoa, the Head of State is entitled to a drawback of any customs duty paid on the importation thereof into Samoa:

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT if and when the Head of State sells, gives away or otherwise disposes of any such motor car within 3 years of importing or purchasing the same, the Head of State shall thereupon become liable to pay customs duty, at the rate current at the date of sale, gift or other disposition, on the depreciated value of such motorcar at the last-mentioned date as determined by the Comptroller of Customs:

- (c) registration and other charges in respect of motor vehicles which are the Head of State's personal property or which are provided for official use;
